Chronology Of Events

1:30 p.m. E.S.T., President Kennedy is shot by sniper's bullet as he rode through Dallas in motorcade. Texas Gov. John Connally is also shot, riding in same car with President.

2 p.m., President dies of head wound at Parkland Hospital, despite efforts by some 10 doctors. Shortly afterward, Gov. Connally is reported out of immediate danger following surgery.

2:39 p.m., Vice President Johnson is sworn in as the 36th President by U.S. District Judge Sarah T. Hughes aboard presidential jet at Dallas' Love Field.

2:45 p.m., Jet takes off for Andrews Air Force Base, Md., with President Johnson, Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy, Mrs. Johnson and casket containing body of President Kennedy.

About 6:05 p.m. Jet lands at Andrews. President Johnson calls death of President Kennedy "loss to country" and "personal one" for him. Body is taken to U.S. Naval Hospital at Bethesda, Md.

6:23 p.m. President Johnson lands by helicopter on White House lawn.

(Other stories and pictures of Kennedy assassination on Pages 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 12, 13, 14, 15, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 36.)